

Reasons why Chilliwack Bowls of Hope was nominated for Excellence in Collaboration:

The partnership between Bowls of Hope, Salvation Army and CCS to ensure children in need received food when schools were closed due to COVID was amazing to see. The organizations came together quickly and were able to develop a program to continue to feed those in need while abiding by all safety protocols.