

Commitment to Reconciliation

The Chilliwack Chamber of Commerce reaffirms our commitment to reconciliation, not as a statement, but as ongoing action.

We are proud to operate on the traditional, ancestral and unceded territory of the Stó:lō peoples, and we are committed to building respectful, lasting relationships that support Indigenous rights and expand economic opportunities for Indigenous peoples and businesses in our region.

Reconciliation is just a word without action. That is why we are proud to offer our Reconciliation Through Education program, developed in meaningful partnership with the Ts'elxwéyeqw Tribe. This signature program, "Education: One of the Many Paths of Reconciliation, Understanding Our Past to Better Our Future," provides workshops, land tours, Elder stories, and community learning opportunities for our members and the broader public.

We believe that education is one of the most powerful paths toward reconciliation. The more we learn together, the more places we will go, together. Our hope is that by bridging gaps, changing conversations, and opening doors to new perspectives, we are helping to build something greater for the generations that follow.

To learn more about our Reconciliation Through Education program, visit chilliwackchamber.com/reconciliation-through-education.